

INDUSTRIAL LEASING AND SALES

From site acquisition and disposition, build-to-suit planning and leasing, Aegis Realty Partners provides its clients with a high level of professional and personalized service. Each broker has a keen understanding of logistics, warehousing, distribution and manufacturing users' needs, and has a successful track record of achieving the clients' requirements in sale and lease transactions throughout the region.

Whether our associates are representing a small private company or a large international corporation, our brokerage division has the knowledge and experience to quickly match space with tenants' and buyers' respective requirements while achieving our client's objectives.